Many people ask, What is the Chamber? What does a Chamber of Commerce do?

Defined, in our case, a Chamber of Commerce is a collection of individuals and businesses who have a common goal of advancing business for each other, and the community.

Many people view a Chamber of Commerce as THE thread of the community. We are the one organization that is able to provide common ground for businesses, government, non-profits, schools, churches, and the community.

Reasons for joining the Kenmore-Town of Tonawanda Chamber of Commerce

• Connections

Broaden your network with like-minded business owners, operators and sales people. Open doors to other companies to help grow your business.

• Business Advocates

Affiliation with the chamber provides a more prominent voice to influence public policy on business and economic initiatives in our community.

• Credibility

In a recent poll, 44 percent of consumers are more likely to think favorably of a business affiliated with a Chamber and 63 percent are more likely to patronize those businesses in the future.

• Visibility

You'll be listed as a member on the Chamber website and in the online and print directory. You'll also have visibility opportunities through special events.

• Resources

Access to and collaborating with other like-minded people, organizations, and businesses can lead to solutions — you're not alone.

• Intelligence

We can serve as a source of the most pertinent local, regional, and state issues which could impact your business so that you can concentrate on growing your business.

• Training

Whether it is a lunch, a breakfast, a workshop or a seminar, the Chamber has a variety of programs to help you increase your business know how and skills in all areas of business.

• Giving Back

Your wisdom and success—your message—needs to be heard. By giving back to the community, the economy, the business climate, and the quality of life in the Ken-Ton area will improve.
